

A Warm Feeling

(The Emmaus Story)

By Jamie Pahl

It happened one day, when you appeared.
You came out of no where, and freed my tears.
What a warm feeling!

(Chorus)

What a warm feeling it is to be;
walking together just you and me.
I feel so lonely when I am alone;
but when I am with you, your presence is known.
What a warm feeling, it is to be.

You say you know me, and I know you;
and as we walk, I forget my pains and listen to you!

(Chorus)

What a warm feeling it is; what a warm feeling it is to be.
What a warm feeling it is; what a warm feeling it is to be.

I invited you in; and we sat down.
As we broke bread; I turned around, and you disappeared!

(Chorus)

What a warm feeling it is; what a warm feeling it is to be.
What a warm feeling it is; what a warm feeling it is to be.
It is to be.
